

FIFTH: This may be someone's last opportunity.

"Yes, I would like to be a Christian, and intend to be sometime," said a man to his friend one day, "but I want to enjoy the pleasures of the world first."

"Well, that's all right," responded his friend. "Go on and enjoy the world! You can become a Christian afterwards."

"But just when should I become a Christian?" inquired the other, in a somewhat anxious tone of voice.

"Oh, five minutes before you die will be time enough," replied his friend in a casual sort of way.

"But I don't know when I am going to die," he exclaimed.

"I may not have another five minutes to live."

"In that case," remarked his friend, "the time to become a Christian is now."

"Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a day may bring forth." (Proverbs 27:1) You may have another chance, but remember, there is a time coming when you will not, when you will have to make the final choice.

WHAT LIES BEYOND

Oh, then be warned before it is forever too late or you will be lost and lost eternally; for remember that God has said, "My spirit shall not always strive with man."

(Genesis 6:3)

These are the solemn words of God Himself and you dare not ignore them. If you are going to be saved you must be saved "today." Will you, then, accept the Lord

Jesus Christ as your own personal
Saviour and accept Him -

NOW?

Revival

MOVEMENT ASSOCIATION

Revival Movement Association
10 Kinallen Road, Dromara,
Dromore, BT25 2NL, Northern Ireland
www.revivalmovement.org

WHAT LIES BEYOND THE GRAVE

WHAT LIES BEYOND THE GRAVE

There are five solemn facts regarding what lies beyond the grave that I want to deal with, facts that are so very important that to ignore them is to knowingly disregard the warnings and danger signals that God has given to us in His perfect Word – the Bible. Therefore, beware!

FIRST: Not everyone will be saved.

There is no such thing as universal salvation; some people will be saved, others - lost. Make no mistake, let no one deceive you - a day of separation is surely coming, a separation of the wheat from the tares, the good from the bad, the sheep from the goats, the saved from the lost. On one side or the other every man and woman will be placed. This is the solemn message of the Bible over and over again; and the question is, will you be among the saved or the lost?

SECOND: The majority will be lost.

"Wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat."

(Matthew 7:13) Many does not mean few. Many means many. "Strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it."

(Matthew 7:14) Few does not mean many. Few means few. There will be many on the broad way and few on the narrow.

THIRD: Many will perish who expect to be saved.

This is the saddest fact of all. Multitudes who confidently expect to be in heaven will awaken when it is too late to find that they have never been born again. All their lifetime they have been deceived. Satan has kept the scales on their eyes to the very last and finally, when it is too late, the scales fall off and they realise that they have never been saved. What an awful thought! - to be on a false foundation, unsaved, self-deceived, and lost eternally. Profession without possession and the door of mercy closed.

Oh my friend, can it be possible that this will be your doom? Has Satan blinded your eyes; are you deceived? You who have listened to the Gospel all your life; you who have been brought up in a Christian home and trained in the Sunday School; you who have been an active member of the church - tell me, are you resting on a false foundation; and will you discover when it is too late that you were never saved at all?

FOURTH: There is no salvation after death.

We read in God's Word of a great gulf. We are told two things about this gulf. First, it is fixed. That means it can never be moved. It is permanent. Second, it is impassible. No one can cross from one side to the other. This means that there is no second chance in spite of what Jehovah's Witnesses have to say about it. If you, my friend, die unsaved, you will remain unsaved. The Bible does not offer a glimmer of hope to anyone who rejects Christ in this life. There is no hope beyond the grave, no second chance.

BEYOND

